Eviction Petition Packet

Judge Kelly Green

KELLY GREEN JUSTICE COURT PRECINCT TWO

EVICTION

- EVICTON CASE: An eviction case is a lawsuit brought to recover possession of real property, often by a landlord against a tenant. A claim for rent may be joined with an eviction case if the amount of rent due and unpaid is not more than $20,000, excluding statutory interest and court costs but including attorney fees, if any.

READ CAREFULLY BEFORE FILING THE PETITION

The following information is furnished to you as a courtesy of the Justice of the Peace office for filing eviction suits. The Court cannot advise you what you should do and are barred by law from giving you legal advice. The Court can only answer procedural questions.

Eviction suits must be filed in the Justice Precinct where the property is located. If you are unsure, please contact 911 addressing in Parker County at 817-598-6135. This is a suit for you to regain possession of your property or to combine a suit for rent with this suit. Please print clearly.

- The plaintiff is the owner of the property. If you are acting as agent, the owner is the plaintiff (not you) and you should sign the petition as the agent for the landlord (plaintiff). Agents must provide a signed notarized statement from the landlord designating you as agent.
- You must name all persons that signed your lease as defendants. All others living at the property can be considered "all other occupants" (ex: "John Doe and all other occupants"). If you name more than one person, you will be required to pay a service fee for each person named.
- State tenant's full address, including apartment number (if applicable) and city.
- You must also complete ALL the attached forms, if they are not necessary we would not have them in the packet.

In order to properly file this suit, you must have given the defendant a written demand to vacate the premises. (Texas Property Code CH 24.005) If you are filing unpaid rent case and the tenant has never been delinquent in rent, you must give a "notice to pay or vacate" rather than a "notice to vacate". If the tenant has paid rent late more than once during your lease term you may give wither "notice to pay rent or vacate" or a "notice to vacate"

The cost for you to have your case filed and the citation served is $154.00 if only one defendant. Each defendant will be an additional $100.00. This is a "court cost" that can be included in the judgment if you win your case.

Evictions may be dismissed only in open court or by written motion. If the tenant vacates the property and you do not want to come for the hearing and obtain your written judgment, you must submit a written motion for dismissal so the case can be cleared from the court's docket
